Food & Beverage Choices

EXHIBIT HALL BASICS

- Booth assignments are handled internally.
- The exhibit hall utilizes tabletop exhibits rather than 10 x 10 booths separated by pipe and drape. Only table top displays are permitted (with the exception of Premier, Continuing Education, and Enhanced Partner Your Way sponsors that have chosen expanded space.) Small retractable signage is acceptable when placed in a location that does not interfere with the flow of traffic and/or sight lines.
- Each exhibitor area will include one six-foot covered table, two chairs, a wastebasket, and identification signage.

Shipping & Receiving

Sponsors and exhibitors will ship materials directly to the hotel; NAEPC does not utilize an exhibition company. Instructions will be provided in the final sponsor logistics kit, which is distributed late summer.

Estimated Set-Up, Tear-Down, and Hall Hours (subject to adjustment)

Set-up: Tuesday, November 15, 2022 between 10:00 am and 4:30 pm
Tear-down: Thursday, November 17, 2022 at approximately 3:15 pm

The Exhibit Hall will be open during meal and break periods beginning after set-up and until tear-down time; receptions, meals, and breaks will take place within. A final schedule of events will be published in the conference brochure and final sponsor logistics kit.

ABOUT THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF ESTATE PLANNERS & COUNCILS

The National Association of Estate Planners & Councils (NAEPC) cultivates excellence in estate planning by serving estate planning councils and their credentialed members, delivering exceptional resources and unsurpassed education, and recognizing those members within who hold the Accredited Estate Planner[®] designation and Estate Planning Law Specialist certification.

EXCELLENCE IN ESTATE PLANNING

We are a national network of over 2,200+ Accredited Estate Planner[®] designees and 275 affiliated estate planning councils and their 30,000 credentialed members, all focused on establishing and monitoring the highest professional and educational standards. Our shared belief is that the team approach to estate planning best serves the client.

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

The 3½ day conference program features one day of best practice sessions for approximately 130 leaders of affiliated councils throughout the country (Tuesday, November 15, 2022) followed by 2 ½ days of technical education (Wednesday, November 16, 2022 through Friday, November 18, 2022 at approximately 12:00 pm). Attendance is expected to reach or exceed 400 attorneys, trust officers, accountants, insurance and financial planners, and philanthropic professionals.

We are delighted to return to Fort Lauderdale, Florida and Marriott Harbor Beach Resort & Spa. The hotel perfectly blends relaxed tropical serenity with Marriott's well-known standard of service. Attendees will experience a beachfront location with modern and plentiful amenities close to shops, dining, and nightlife for the perfect marriage of conference + relaxation.

RULES & REGULATIONS

These instructions and regulations have been formulated for the best interest of the sponsor / exhibitor and conference attendees.

Commitment, Payment & Cancellation • Full payment is required with the commitment form. Sponsor / exhibitor commitments are non-refundable. NAEPC has the right to refuse participation to any person or firm that, in its sole discretion, does not support the mission of the association or the educational and other purposes of the NAEPC Advanced Estate Planning Strategies Conference.

Act of God • In the case of cancellation of the conference or unavailability of the exhibit hall due to Acts of God, war, threats or acts of terrorism, governmental authority, fire, strike, labor disputes, frustration of purpose, commercial impracticability, or any other cause beyond the control of the NAEPC, this agreement shall terminate, and NAEPC shall not be responsible for any damages or expenses incurred by the sponsor or exhibitor in connection therewith.

Assignment of Exhibit Space • Assignment of space will be determined by the NAEPC. NAEPC reserves the right to adjust the floor plan in the event of conflicts, either in advance of the conference or on-site.

Character of Exhibits • No exhibit shall interfere with another exhibit, impede access to another exhibit, use the space of another exhibit, or interfere with the free use of the aisle in front of any exhibit. All exhibit materials, including decorations, exhibit display, and audio-visual equipment must conform to fire regulations and electrical codes of the hotel. Exhibitors with audible electric devices, videos and other exhibits or devices, which might prove objectionable to other exhibitors, may be required to accept booth assignments that diminish reasonable objections.

Dismantling • No booth may be dismantled until the official tear-down time. Any exhibitor that begins dismantling before this time may revoke their right to exhibit at any future NAEPC conference.

Distribution of Printed Matter • Except from within rented space or as purchased as a part of this prospectus, exhibitors and sponsors shall not distribute printed matter, samples, souvenirs, and the like. Distribution of materials elsewhere in the exhibit hall, session space, in the hotel, or on hotel property is not permitted.

Functions, Supplemental & Social Events • All functions scheduled by a sponsor / exhibitor during conference dates must be submitted in writing and pre-approved by the NAEPC no less than 30 days prior to the start of the conference. This includes, but is not limited to, receptions, large group dinners, hospitality suites, or alternative transportation to off-site conference related events. Small group dinners are excluded from this requirement. Any sponsor / exhibitor deemed to have scheduled a competing event may revoke their right to participate in future NAEPC conferences. Pre-paid sponsor / exhibitor fees will not be refunded. See page 15 for more information with regard to social events.

Insurance & Liability • Sponsor / exhibitor assumes entire responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend, and save the NAEPC and its employees, independent contractors, and board of directors harmless against all claims, losses and damages to persons or property, governmental charges or fines and attorney's fees arising out of or caused by Exhibitor's transportation, installation, removal, maintenance, occupancy, display or use of exhibits, or of the exhibition premises or a part thereof, or for the conduct of or harm caused to attendees at any special supplemental event hosted by the sponsors/exhibitor, excluding any such liability caused by the sole negligence of NAEPC and its employees and board of directors.

Programming • Sponsors / exhibitors may not conduct promotional or educational programming including lectures, demonstrations or audiovisual presentations during conference programming hours with the exception of approved Bonus Workshop / Sessions and Sponsored General Sessions.

Property Damage • Sponsors / exhibitors are responsible for damage to property. No signs or other articles shall be posted, nailed, or otherwise attached to any of the pillars, walls, doors, floors, etc., in such a manner as to damage, deface, or destroy.

Shipping Instructions, AV, Electricity & Telephone Service • Information regarding these items will be available to sponsors / exhibitors prior to the conference and will be distributed via email (the “Logistics Kit”).

Staffing and Behavior of Sponsor / Exhibitor Representatives • A company representative must be in attendance at the exhibit booth during the hours the exhibit hall is open. Any sponsor / exhibitor representative or firm displaying inappropriate or aggressive behavior and/or sales tactics, including, but not limited to, touching participants and/or their apparatus without their express permission, will be asked to leave immediately and may result in the removal of an exhibit or cancellation of a sponsorship with no refund of fees, including, but not limited to the sponsor / exhibitor fee, transportation and lodging costs, meals, shipping costs, etc. Representatives must adhere to the NAEPC Event Conduct Statement: www.naepc.org/content/conduct.

Subletting Space • Subletting space is not permitted. Two or more firms may not exhibit in a single space unless arrangements have been approved by the NAEPC in advance.

MAILING LIST USAGE POLICY

All conference sponsors and exhibitors receive one pre-conference and one post-conference mailing list of contact details (name, designations/discipline to the extent that they were provided by the attendee, firm name, postal mailing address for those who have not opted out of receiving sponsor messages) for use in promoting their attendance at the annual conference and/or the hosting of supplemental events*. Premier & Continuing Education Sponsors and Partner Your Way sponsors that opted in will also receive email addresses within the attendee list.

The pre-conference list will be emailed to the primary and marketing contact one week prior to the program and the post-conference list within two weeks of the conclusion of the program. By accepting delivery of these lists, a sponsoring or exhibiting company agrees to the terms outlined below.

- NAEPC and National Association of Estate Planners & Councils names or logos may not be used on any material mailed by user. The sponsoring or exhibiting company must reference their attendance at the “59th Annual NAEPC Advanced Estate Planning Strategies Conference”.
- An approved use includes a postal mailing or an email message (email is only permitted when the sponsor’s list includes email addresses).
- Use of the list to gather phone numbers is prohibited, as is telephoning those who appear on the lists.
- User may use attendee contact information for an approved use once each time an attendee list is distributed. The pre-conference list may only be used pre-conference and the post-conference list must be used within sixty (60) days of the date on which it was sent to the User.
- User may not copy, replace, or duplicate the information contained within, any portion thereof, or extract or retain any information there from. User may not at any time permit any attendee names and addresses to pass into the hands of any other person, association, organization, or company.
- User will hold the provider harmless against any damages or claim of damage, costs and reasonable attorney fees, arising out of any actual or alleged impropriety or illegality of mailed matter or infringement of trademark, trade name, or copyright belonging to others.
- User agrees to forward within ten (10) days following receipt, any letters or documents (or copies thereof) of complaints received from attendees or a report of verbal complaints by attendees regarding the user's mailing, the matter transmitted therein, or the offered product or service.
- The user is solely responsible for determining that the information provided is sufficiently accurate for the user’s purposes.

Any prohibited or unauthorized use by sponsoring or exhibiting company or failure to report attendee complaints as described above shall constitute a material breach of the sponsorship agreement and may exclude company from participation in future years.

See page 15 for information about hosting sponsored or supplemental events.*

GENERAL SESSION FAQ

Sponsored sessions are provided as a way for organizations supporting the annual conference at the Premier level to enrich the educational experience of, and gain additional exposure to, attendees.

When are the sessions offered?

Up to three sessions will be offered from Wednesday, November 16, 2022 through Thursday, November 17, 2022 (schedule is created by NAEPC.) The sessions will be offered first committed, first approved, first confirmed.

What does my company need to do to participate?

The participating company must sponsor at the Premier level of support and agree to provide a speaker of national prominence and content that is educational and appropriate for the audience and must submit a complete application (page 14 of this packet) and supporting documents with the commitment form. Applications will be reviewed by NAEPC and a determination will be communicated within 30 days of receipt. NAEPC reserves the right to deny an application that is incomplete or does not meet the guidelines with regard to subject matter. Sales and marketing presentations and/or topics are prohibited, as are tactics designed to increase attendance, such as contests. At no time shall a session provider be permitted to deny attendance to their session to any conference attendee.

What will NAEPC do to promote our session?

Those companies that have applied and been approved to participate by April 30, 2022 will have information about their session included in the registration brochures. The materials will clearly indicate that the program is a sponsored session and will include notice of the sponsoring company.

What will NAEPC provide for our session?

- NAEPC will provide standard audio-visual equipment for the session (one podium and microphone per presenter, screen, laptop, and projector).
- Complimentary conference registration for one (1) presenter*.

What will NAEPC not provide as a part of our session?

NAEPC will not provide reimbursement for speaker travel or lodging expenses. Should a speaker require an honorarium, that expense is the sole responsibility of the sponsor. Should special audio-visual, staging, or set-up be requested, that expense is the sole responsibility of the sponsor.

Continuing Education Credit

The session is a part of the main conference and multi-disciplinary credit is requested for the program. As a result, the sponsoring company and all presenters must adhere to all requests and deadlines with regard to CE filing. This may include, but is not limited to, a full speaker biography, outline, timely completion of instructor registration forms, various state filing forms, and/or other documents as requested. Failure to comply with these requests may be cause for cancellation of the session with no refund of sponsorship fees to the sponsoring company.

How many people will attend our session?

NAEPC does not estimate or guarantee attendance for a sponsored session, but will make a reasonable effort to promote the session as described above when a timely commitment form and application is received. Those commitments received after April 30, 2022 will be promoted to the best of NAEPC's abilities online and in print.

Can we distribute printed material during/at the session?

Printed material cannot be distributed to attendees during or at the session.

Registration is in addition to the 5 registrations that are furnished as a part of the benefits of the Premier level support.*

BONUS WORKSHOP / SESSION FAQ

Bonus Workshops / Sessions are provided for those organizations supporting the annual conference to enrich the educational experience of attendees. Partner Your Way Enhanced Sponsors are eligible to opt-in to hosting a session as part of the benefit package while Partner Your Way Sponsors can opt-in to hosting a session for a fee.

When are the sessions offered?

These special sessions will be offered from 7:00 am – 7:45 am* on the mornings of both Wednesday, November 16, 2022 and Thursday, November 17, 2022 (up to 3 concurrent sessions each morning).

What does my company need to do to participate?

The sponsoring company must agree to provide content that is educational and appropriate for the audience and must submit a complete application (page 14 of this packet) along with supporting documents and the commitment form. Applications will be reviewed by NAEPC and a determination will be communicated within 30 days of receipt. NAEPC reserves the right to deny an application that is incomplete or does not meet the guidelines with regard to subject matter. Sales and marketing presentations and/or topics are prohibited, as are tactics designed to increase attendance or sway attendees to choose one session over another, such as contests. At no time shall a session provider be permitted to deny attendance to their session to any conference attendee.

What will NAEPC do to promote our session?

Those companies that have applied and been approved to participate by April 30, 2022 will have information about their session included in the registration brochures. Please note that the materials will clearly indicate that the program is sponsored and will include notice of the sponsoring company.

What will NAEPC provide for our session?

- NAEPC will provide a podium, microphone, screen, and projector; speakers are asked to bring their own laptop. Additional needs must be arranged with the hotel directly and all fees are the responsibility of the hosting company. NAEPC staff will provide the company representative with the hotel's AV contact to make arrangements.
- Complimentary conference registration for one (1) presenter.

What will NAEPC not provide as a part of our session?

NAEPC will not provide reimbursement for speaker travel or lodging expenses. Should a speaker require an honorarium, that expense is the sole responsibility of the sponsor. Should special audio-visual, staging, or set-up be requested, that expense is the sole responsibility of the sponsor.

Can our Company Provide Continuing Education Credit for the Program?

Yes! Although NAEPC will not file a Sponsor Bonus Workshop / Session for credit, hosting companies are encouraged to do so to the extent that they are able. The hosting company is responsible for all filings, fees, forms, attendance monitoring, record retention, reporting of credit, and certificates of completion.

How Many People Will Attend Our Session?

NAEPC does not estimate or guarantee attendance for a Sponsor Bonus Workshop / Session, but will make a reasonable effort to promote the session as described above when a timely commitment form and application is received. Those commitments received after April 30, 2022 will be promoted to the best of NAEPC's abilities online and in print. Room deliveries are available to promote a session for a nominal fee (see Attention Grabbers within the prospectus).

Can we distribute printed material during/at the session?

Yes, you may.

Timing subject to change.*

Registration is in addition to those that are furnished as a part of the benefits of the sponsor's level of support.*

SOCIAL & SUPPLEMENTAL EVENTS

Social events enhance the conference experience for attendees and provide sponsoring and exhibiting firms with an opportunity to spend time with those with whom they most align. NAEPC is interested in growing the number and type of supplemental events hosted by sponsoring and exhibiting firms during the Annual Advanced Estate Planning Strategies Conference. A group dinner at a famous local restaurant, special outings, a beach party, dancing lessons, an early riser yoga class... the options are limited only by your firm's creativity.

Firms interested in hosting a social or supplemental event during the conference should submit this form for committee consideration to conference@naepc.org no less than 30 days before the program begins. Those firms that receive approval for their event will receive an additional attendee list 30 days before the program for the sole use of promoting their event to attendees. This list may be used one time pre-conference.

By signing below I/we agree to comply with the rules & regulations outlined within the sponsorship packet and specifically for supplemental events. I/we understand that I will receive two lists of attendees, one approximately thirty days pre-conference and the final approximately seven days pre-conference. I understand that NAEPC is unable to offer verbal mention about my event from the podium. Should your firm wish to explore additional marketing opportunities, please contact our sponsorship coordinator. If my/our event is approved, I/we understand that timing cannot conflict with any conference-related event and agree to notify NAEPC immediately if any event-related details change from what I have submitted above. Furthermore, I/we understand that NAEPC cannot guarantee attendance at my/our event.
